Al identificarme de manera global hice el commit y push que se me pidió, posteriormente procedí a autenticar mis credenciales.

The image is a screenshot of a web browser. The top part shows a tab titled "Manager - Authent..." with a URL that includes "ib0&state=84b9f36762924ff58589547bb202cc9e". The main content area displays a message: "Authentication Succeeded" with the text "You may now close this tab and return to the application." Below this, there's a GitHub logo and a red key icon.

The bottom part of the image shows the GitHub repository page for "Unidad2" by "David64-AGC". The repository is public and has 1 branch and 0 tags. It shows a commit by "david_galicia_cardenas" 8 minutes ago, which added a file named "M2-01.txt". The repository currently has no README, and there's a button to "Add a README". The right sidebar shows the repository's activity, including 0 stars, 1 watching, and 0 forks. There are also sections for "Releases" and "Packages", both of which are empty.

Below the repository page, there's a section titled "Commit" showing the commit details for "david_galicia_cardenas". It indicates that 1 file was changed with 0 additions and 0 deletions. The file "M2-01.txt" is shown as an empty file. There are 0 comments on the commit, and a form is provided to leave a comment.

Con esto logrado, pude efectuar los cambios en el repositorio.

Conclusión:

Fue bastante divertido hacer esto, claro fue un poco difícil por no saber como hacer varias cosas pero fue interesante.
